EXPERIENCE

Mentor | Support Worker

Jake has nearly two years of experience supporting participants across Supported Independent Living (SIL), community access, youth and aged care settings.
His experience includes supporting participants with personal care, household tasks, and daily living activities, as well as promoting independence at home and in the community. He also assists with medical and hospital appointments, grocery shopping, errands, and safe transport to appointments and school. Jake provides support for social, recreational and outdoor activities, along with reliable companionship and emotional support.
Jake's strong communication and problem-solving skills allow him to respond calmly to different situations and provide support that reflects each participant's individual circumstances, abilities and goals.
