Harbour Help

MEET THE PEOPLE BEHIND YOUR SUPPORT

Santana

CO-FOUNDER & DIRECTOR

Law student

Santana brings a people-first approach to HarbourHelp, with a strong background in community support and a genuine passion for helping individuals and families feel supported and understood. Alongside his work with HarbourHelp, Santana is studying Law and brings strong communication, organisation and leadership skills to the team.

As a Co-Founder and Director, Santana is passionate about building meaningful relationships and creating a supportive team culture where participants and their families feel heard and valued in their support team.

Fun fact: Santana is studying Law while also playing semi-professional soccer - so he’s pretty good at balancing a busy schedule!
